

LCIA African Users' Council Symposium

A half-day symposium on International Commercial Arbitration

Tuesday 11 December

Stephenson Harwood, London

About

In the long established LCIA tradition, this event is designed to be interactive and to provide an opportunity for delegates to share news and views on developments in the field of international commercial arbitration and ADR.

The first panel will focus on key developments, presenting Arbitration news bulletins from around Africa. Following this the Vice President of the African Users' Council, Funke Adekoya will be interviewed on the theme "Forging a career path in International Arbitration" before hearing from young Practitioners addressing their hopes for African Arbitration.

Guests are then invited to join panellists and our host to continue the conversation over drinks and canapés with a live African band.

Who should attend?

Arbitrators, in-house counsel, practitioners, academics and members of the local and international business community interested in, and affected by, current developments and best practice in the field of international arbitration.
